MIND

SCRIPTURAL TEACHINGS

How do you know if you have a mind set on the flesh or on the spirit? Read Romans 8:5

JAY LINK

We must be ever-mindful that on God's eternal scales, our accumulated, temporal assets, no matter how great they might be, weigh nothing.

We must recognize that what is on our mind is the most accurate indicator of our real, spiritual health.

The conflicted mind waivers back and forth from a carnal mind to a converted mind, making him "unstable in all his ways."

Any unregenerate mind left to its own unrestrained devices will focus on the here and now.

Everything in our lives should be impacted by the good news of what Jesus did for us on the cross to redeem us.

How can we possibly live in a material world and not find ourselves thinking about earthly things?

Any unregenerate mind left to its own unrestrained devices will focus on the here and now.
What is your mind focused on?

Know that what's on your MIND is the most accurate indicator of your real, spiritual health.
So, what's on your mind?

Jesus, unlike us, always lived in the present.

The present is so brief that by the time you even say the word "present," it is no longer in the present, it is now in the past.

JAY LINK

God is clearly a God of the present. He describes Himself as the “I Am.”

There is a first time and a last time for everything.
Knowing this makes all the in-between times so much sweeter.

QUOTES FROM OTHERS

One of the greatest missing teachings in the American church today is the reminder to men and women that nothing we have belongs to us.

MacDonald

There are three conversions necessary: the conversion of the heart, mind, and the purse.

Luther

Fasting and prayer are the greatest barriers to keep out all temptations of intemperance and sin from the minds of men.
